Introduction

Welcome to the Idle Stone Game. In this game, you will explore a world divided into hexagons, mine stones, conduct tests, manage your inventory, and enhance your skills through perks. This manual will guide you through each feature of the game.

Exploration

Mining Tiles

In the exploration screen, you'll see a world divided into hexagons. Each hexagon can be mined for stones. To mine a tile, follow these steps:

1. Select Tile: Click on a hexagon to select it. The selected tile will be highlighted in red.
2. Tile Information: A panel at the bottom will display the information of the selected tile.
3. Mine: Click the "Mine" button next to the tile information to start mining. Only one tile can be actively mining at a time.

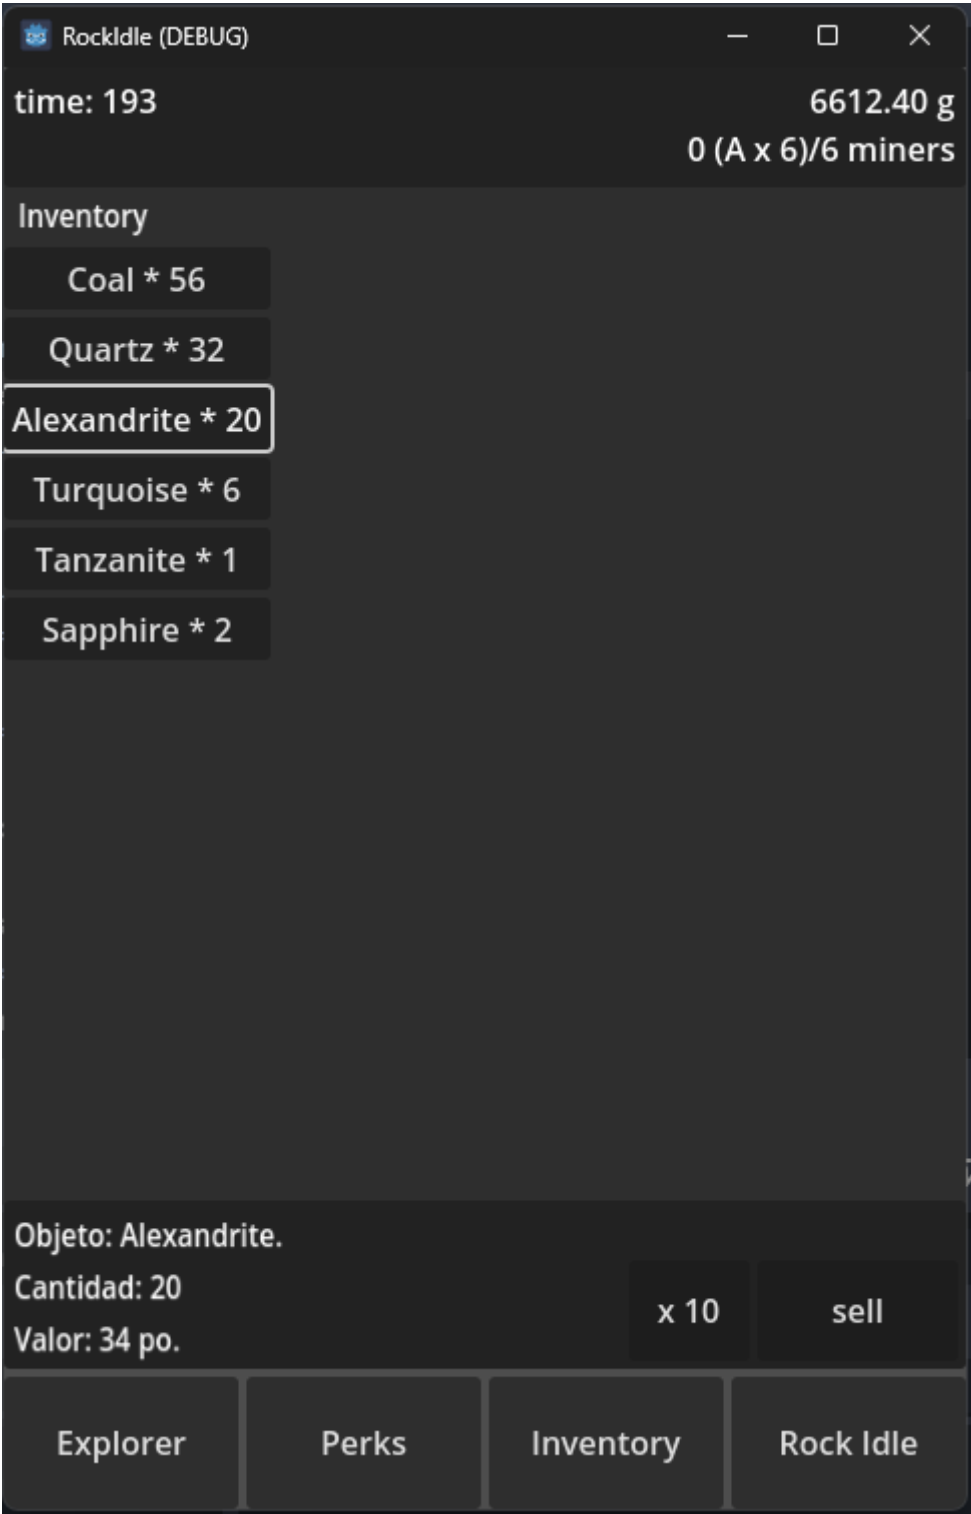

You start with a total of 2 miners. Mining is manual at the beginning, but as you explore the skills, you may be able to automate it.

Testing

The testing screen allows you to gain additional resources to continue with excavations. In this screen, you can perform different tests to earn rewards. Details of the tests will be available in the game.

This feature is not yet developed for this version of the game.

Inventory

View Inventory

To view your inventory:

1. Open Inventory: Access the inventory screen from the main menu.
2. Item Grid: Your inventory is displayed in a scrollable grid. Each cell represents a type of stone you have collected.
3. Information Panel: When you select an item, a fixed panel at the bottom will show the quantity, type of stone, and additional options.

Sell Stones

To sell stones:

1. Select Stone: Click on a stone in your inventory.
2. Sell: In the information panel, click the "Sell" button to sell the selected stones.

Buying Perks

To buy perks:

1. Open Perks Screen: Access the perks screen from the main menu.
2. View Perks: The list of available perks is displayed in a scrollable vertical panel. Each perk has an associated button.
3. Buy Perk: Click the button of a perk to view detailed information. If you have enough resources, click "Buy" to acquire the perk.

The goal of the game is to buy the "Win the game" perk.

View Credits

To view the game credits:

1. Open Credits: Access the credits screen from the main menu.
2. View Credits: The credits will show information about the game's developers and contributors.

Exit the Game

To exit the game:

1. Press ESC: Press the ESC key at any time during the game.
2. Confirm Exit: A dialog will appear asking if you want to exit. Click "Yes" to close the game.
